

Oksana Jaffe
Director, State and Local Tax
KPMG

Oksana Jaffe, Director at KPMG, State and Local Tax, advises clients on California's tax laws, focusing on income and franchise taxes, including market-based sourcing rules, cost-of-performance issues, and apportionment issues. Ms. Jaffe is an adjunct professor at UC Hastings College of Law. Before joining KPMG, she served as Chief Consultant to the California Assembly Committee on Revenue and Taxation. Ms. Jaffe advised Members of California Legislature on tax law, analyzed legislation, provided tax counsel in connection with the annual budget process, and acted as a liaison between the California Assembly and various state tax agencies. Ms. Jaffe represented the Committee on Revenue and Taxation as an advisor to the Franchise Tax Board and the Executive Committee of the Tax Section of the California State Bar.

Ms. Jaffe started her professional career as an international tax associate with the Los Angeles office of Deloitte LLP and then served as a tax attorney with Howard Rice, San Francisco, where she practiced international and federal corporate tax law for several years. Ms. Jaffe received a B.A. and M.A. in Philosophy from Kiev National University in Ukraine, a J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law, and a LL.M. in Taxation from New York University School of Law.
